Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The love of life and the longing for good health are two of man's greatest desires; and,

WHEREAS, To maintain a healthy society, people rely on the expertise of trained professionals in the medical field; and,

WHEREAS, In the Watertown area, South Dakotans put their faith in the hands of the skilled members of the Watertown District Medical Society; and,

WHEREAS, As members of the community and the Society, Watertown physicians are deeply concerned about the well-being of their neighbors and friends and children; and,

WHEREAS, To show their concern, the Society has been offering free physicals to student athletes for the past 25 years; and,

WHEREAS, Since its inception in the early 20th Century, the Watertown District Medical Society has promoted the cause of good health in South Dakota through immunization programs, cancer symposiums, radio and television broadcasts, essay contests, and many other community-oriented activities; and,

WHEREAS, In recognition of National Doctor's Day, the families and friends of the Watertown District Medical Society are sponsoring a dinner dance to recognize the many professional people who have devoted their lives to promoting the health of others:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 16, 1983, as

WATERTOWN DISTRICT MEDICAL SOCIETY DAY

In South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota. In Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-second Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three

William Janklow
